Dear Friends,

When my parents, Houston and Grace Jennings, moved with their five children from Alabama to Florida in 1949, they started sending citrus by train to family and friends for the holidays. As word spread, their business began and since then, we've continued the tradition. There have been many changes over the years and as the grandchildren have grown, so has our business...However, you, our customer, have remained foremost in our efforts. Through all of the new developments, we still carefully hand pack our shipments with the freshest fruit we have to offer and ship them out the same day. We do all the work for you. No lines, no crowds, no hassles and your gifts are guaranteed! We appreciate your business and look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes from our family to yours,

Edward & Deborah Jennings
