Enter the state and school name and select: Sacred Heart School (PA186) – Lancaster, PA enter gender and grade to view specific items.

On the next page,

Parents with questions about whether a particular item is compliant with the Dress Code and Uniform Policy should ask the principal prior to purchasing the item or allowing their student to wear the item to school. Parents may submit questions via email (including a photo of the item in question) to Mrs. Alton at khalon@sacredheartsch.org.

During the 2024-2025 school year, students may continue to wear their uniforms from the prior year, so long as the uniforms items are neat, clean and fit properly.

The principal of Sacred Heart School is the final judge of adherence to and violations of the Dress Code and Uniform Policy.

In winter weather, students may wear additional layers and footwear for travel, but these must be removed once students are at school so that they are wearing the appropriate school uniform throughout the school day.

Section 9. Uniform Accommodation

At the discretion of the principal, Sacred Heart will accommodate students with documented needs and make individual adjustments to the uniform for those students. Parents of those students are responsible for communicating those needs with the school. Parents of students who do not have those same needs should help their child understand that adjustments should be made for students who need them because it is the right thing to do.

Section 10. Uniform Exchange

Gently used items may be acquired from the Sacred Heart School Uniform Exchange, subject to availability, items may be purchased from the Uniform Exchange for $1.00 each. Alternatively a parent may trade a new donation for an item from the Uniform Exchange.

All donated items must conform to the 2024-2025 Dress Code and Uniform Policy, must be clean and must be in good condition.

Visitors to the Uniform Exchange must return all items to their proper location and leave the area neat and tidy.

Section 11. Uniform Correction

Because uniforms create a sense of unity in the school and personal pride for individual students, it is important that students and parents adhere to the Sacred Heart Dress Code and Uniform Policy. If a student is out of uniform, it is the responsibility of the homeroom teacher only to take the following steps:

- First Infraction – An email reminder will be sent to the parent(s)/guardian(s) to remind them of the Dress Code and Uniform Policy. The teacher will also include some ways to assist the parent (Uniform Exchange) to make sure the child has everything he/she need to wear their uniform correctly. The principal should be copied on this email.
- Second Uniform Infraction – After a week, if the same issue continues, the homeroom teacher will notify the principal in writing so that the parents and the principal can come up with a solution together.

School Supplies

School supplies are available for purchase hear at school throughout the year. Some supplies must be purchased through the school and are noted on the stationery list. Stationery items will be on sale periodically throughout the year.
