

Fruit Bowl

Design: Hans J. Wegner, 1956

pp586

Piece of art

The Fruit Bowl is a result of a rare execution, Wegner using the wood turning technique to create a stand-alone object. In this instance he did not allow himself to be concerned about practical issues making a truly extravagant design demonstrating with great elegance what such an expressive carving of solid wood can offer.

Wegner presented the Fruit Bowl at the annual Cabinetmakers' Guild's Autumn Exhibition, where a journalist questioning the reason for this excessive extravagance confronted him. "Well, sometimes you would like to just let it all go!" Wegner replied.

Still the Fruit Bowl seems obvious in all its beauty and as usual with Wegner, all shapes, angles and proportions somehow could not have been made differently.

The Fruit Bowl is unique in Wegner's work and has no predecessor or alternative versions. It is a one off piece of art that states the high point of the golden era of Danish Modern in the 1950's.

pp586 can be used both as a classic fruit bowl or perhaps a more modern magazine holder – the only limit is your imagination.

The legs can easily be removed for a different use of the bowl.
