

Daybench Jumbo

This is a bench. A really beautifully proportioned and well executed bench. It does not connect to the internet, disrupt industry or reimagine a damn thing. It's just good. Also available in a smaller size. This leather is beautifully natural and dynamic. It is intended to patina with use and time. Images are intended to be representative of the material, but all hides are unique, this means each piece will possess slightly different characteristics such as scars and stretch marks.
