Grova Pedestal

Bring a gallery-like presence to your space with the Grova Pedestal, crafted from FSC™-certified solid ash and grounded by a solid travertine foot. The stone pierces through the tabletop in a striking architectural gesture, while the softly carved surface tapers gently towards the point where the travertine emerges. Inspired by the mangrove ecosystem, where roots break through the water's surface, the Grova Pedestal functions beautifully as both a side table and an artful statement piece.

Grova Side Table

Add a gallery-level aesthetic to your space with the Grova Side Table crafted from FSC™-certified solid ash contrasted with a solid travertine foot. The travertine foot pierces through the tabletop, creating a striking architectural gesture, while the softly carved tabletop has a continuous curve that tapers toward the point where the stone emerges. Inspired by the Mangrove ecosystem where roots break through the water, the Grova Side Table can also be used as a pedestal or art object.
