Échasse Vase, Amber

BY THERESA RAND

Theresa Rand's playful collection of bowls and vases beautifully interprets the French word for stilts: échasse. This season, warm, amber-coloured glass updates the popular series — a modern reinterpretation of glass vases and bowls inspired by laboratory test tubes.

Set on brass supports to create a sense of lightness while ensuring stability, Échasse Amber is crafted from mouth-blown glass reminiscent of the deep amber hue of traditional apothecary bottles or the golden-brown tones autumn leaves. Elevated in every sense, the drop-shaped forms are as elegant when holding flowers on a desk, living room floor or nightstand, as when left unfilled — offering infinite possibilities for experimentation, as its origins suggest.

A Sense of Community

MENU has always been fascinated by the way in which individuals and spaces can be united through great design. In our pursuit to craft furniture, lighting and interior accessories shaped by purposeful details, high-quality materials and human needs, we create strong and lasting relations between designers, manufacturers and customers. The sense of community that results from this union of like-minded individuals fosters a deeper sense of belonging – and products that stand the test of time, inviting human connection, inspiration and experimentation to push the boundaries of modern design. We truly believe that when we work collectively, we achieve more than we do individually: the sum of our work and of our connections is always greater than its parts, and our softly minimal designs and collaborative spirit help to join the dots between the home, the workplace and the service industry, redefining how we use space and, ultimately, how we connect to those around us.
