Each hand-turned spice mill by De JONG & Co. is crafted for its pleasant feel, usability, and presence on the table. The pepper mill features a stainless steel grinder with adjustable grain size and can be used to mill peppercorns as well as other whole spices. The salt mill contains ceramic components designed to last for generations and not corrode. De JONG & Co. Spice Mills are available in oak and walnut in five shapes - Maid, Butler, Spade, Column and Pencil. Available in natural oak or walnut with our food safe, hand-rubbed oil & wax finish.
