

Striad® Lounge Furniture

With their Striad family of seating and tables, designers Markus Jehs and Jürgen Laub sought to enhance the comfort of the people who use it. You'll recognize this focus on comfort in thoughtful details such as the lounge chair's welcoming contours, the sofa's deep-set cushions, and the table's functional scale.

Benefits

- Rigid outer shell of the Striad Lounge Chair provides stability and support while the softer inner shell offers flexion
- Optional integrated power for tables keeps work tools charged
- The sofa's deep-set, dual-density foam cushions offer premium comfort and support
- When paired together, high-back sofas offer on-demand privacy
- Low-back and sectional sofas foster collaboration
- Bases across seating and tables complement each other for a cohesive look
