All those in favor of workplace safety say 'eye.' The Global Industrial™ Single Bottle Eyewash Station is a great back up for a quick response to eye accidents in large work environments, where employees might need immediate treatment. The smaller size of these stations is ideal for mounting in workspaces when irritation, burning, and itching occur from dust, smoke, or chemical contamination is possible. The removable bottles are also perfect for portable use when transporting an injured worker to a facility for further medical care. Place them within a 10 second walk from hazards to meet OSHA standards. 1 Year Limited Warranty.
