Create a tiered display in tight areas

Merchandising space is king in retail, and identifying new ways to showcase more products in a given space is crucial. The ModoShelf™ Counter Display can be used in smaller merchandising cases that do not allow easy shelf attachments. The display can also be integrated into deli, meat, and seafood cases to provide tiered food displays and improve presentation.

Shelves can be installed flat or tilted at an angle for better presentation and product visibility. The top shelf is designed to be 14" deep and the bottom shelf 16" deep, while the shelf spacing is roughly 9" between the shelves.

Designed for durability and food safety, all components of the ModoShelf Counter Display are crafted to ensure easy disassembly for thorough cleaning. The shelf perforations allow for the use of a variety of product stops, dividers, and pushers to help organize and face products.

ModoShelf™ tiles are infused with Microban® antimicrobial product protection to combat against odor and stain-causing bacteria and mold. This ensures ModoShelf stays cleaner between routine maintenance efforts.
