Product Compliance in Accordance with the General Product Safety Regulation (GPSR)

Dear Partner,

We would like to inform you about the new Regulation (EU) 2023/988 on General Product Safety (GPSR), which requires economic operators to comply with specific requirements.

The GPSR is an EU regulation that replaces the General Product Safety Directive and the Food-Imitating Products Directive. It entered into force on December 13, 2024, modernizing the EU product safety framework to address challenges posed by digitalization and new technologies. This regulation applies to all non-food products sold across all sales channels.

Compliance with the GPSR as a Manufacturer

At Marset, we are committed to fulfilling our obligations under the GPSR as a manufacturer. To this end, we ensure compliance with GPSR requirements and will promptly inform our business partners in case of any safety issues with products sold through our distribution channels. By adhering to these guidelines, we collectively ensure the safety of our customers and maintain compliance with EU regulations.

Below are the key responsibilities we undertake as manufacturers and suppliers:

Ensuring compliance with GPSR labeling and safety requirements for all our products.

Maintaining appropriate storage and transportation conditions to preserve product conformity with the GPSR.

Retaining any non-compliant product from the market until it fully complies with the regulation.

Immediately notifying our business partners and relevant operators in the supply chain if hazardous or non-compliant products are identified.

Providing our commercial network and end customers with a contact channel for any inquiries or communications related to the safety of our products:

Compliance with the GPSR as a Distributor or Reseller

To ensure GPSR compliance throughout our distribution network, we require our business partners to take the following actions:

1. Maintain a record of their suppliers/manufacturers and provide the following details in accordance with the regulation:
  - a. Electronic address (website)
  - b. Contact person responsible for product safety within the company, including an email address.
2. Implement a product labeling verification process and carry out checks upon receiving products in their warehouses.
3. Notify Marset immediately if any hazardous or non-compliant products are identified among the supplied items.

For any other inquiries or concerns related to product safety, please contact us at the following email address: gpsr@marset.com

Thank you for your support!
